Dance Regulations Get Close Board Scrutiny

On State Board - -

Bradford Bachrach

Mrs. Kenneth Spengler, 189 Jason st., was named to the Board of Trustees for State Colleges and sworn in by Gov. Volpe at ceremonies at the State House on Tuesday. Long active in local organizations, and a leader of programs for the young people, Mrs. Spengler was president for several years of the Arlington Youth Council. She also served as president of the League of Women Voters, president of Parmenter PTA, member of the board of directors of Boys Club, mem-

Members of the Arlington Citizens for Youth met with the Board of Selectmen on Monday night to discuss a proposed set of rules and regulations to govern "teen-age dances" within the town.

Mrs. Philibert Pellegrini, chairman, was spokesman for the Youth committee and cited the fact that they were open for suggestions on the two-page list of proposed rules.

Chairman Joseph Greeley commented that the list to date was "remarkably good" and that the members of the Board had questions on only one or two points.

Mrs. Pellegrini answered one question from the Chairman regarding a suggested "co-ordinator" by stating that Fred Tobin of the Park Department has agreed to keep a calendar of events within the town. The point of this suggestion was to prevent several groups or organizations from scheduling functions on the same night. Mrs. Pellegrini explained that the Library does this to some degree at the present time.

The confusion regarding the new pedestrian lights at the intersection of Mass. ave., Broadway and Medford st., was discussed by the Board of Selectmen at the meeting on Monday night.

Town Manager Edward C. Monahan in a statement to this paper Wednesday asked the co-operation of residents of Arlington in connection with throwing snow on streets.

Mr. Monahan seriously urged that the practice be discontinued.

He explained that in a small storm, conditions aren't as bad, but that during a storm where the snow is so heavy such practice seriously hampers plowing operations.

Monahan stated: "Streets were plowed again and again, but a few thoughtless people after the plows had gone, throw snow back on the streets while clearing sidewalks and driveways leaving ruts, ridges, slush and ice on street surfaces. "This made street surfaces very difficult to negotiate, especially on hills.

Another "weekend" storm hit New England and the snowfall in Arlington over Sunday and Monday ranged from 12 to 18 inches.

Damage to trees and wires was widespread, but no power failure was reported in Arlington. Winds reached gale force, recorded at over 50 mph, and complicated the plowing operations, which were impeded by poor visibility with the unusually heavy, wet snowfall.

According to reports from Town Manager Edward C. Monahan, costs of this storm as of 8 a.m. Wednesday had reached $35,000.

In describing the storm,

"The effect was bad enough on flat streets, but the effect on hilly streets was very, very bad both as to passability and safety.

An increase in town costs also resulted when additional plowing was required."

Town Manager Monahan stated that it resulted in conditions to cause snow removal crews to work to "the point of no return." Workers were on duty from 2 p.m. Sunday to 6 p.m. Monday night and then returned again at midnight. It was a tremendous task to clear streets in face of driving winds, heavy snow, and officials of most local communities, including Arlington, issued "no school" bulletins and many people were unable to get to work.

Town officials are hopeful the so-called "one-two punch" will not occur this week and that the predicted second storm, for Thursday, will go out to sea.

Mystic Lakes Draw Attention From M.D.C.

A scientific study of the Lower Mystic Lake in Arlington and Medford to determine methods of correcting odor, pollution and other problems has been authorized by the Metropolitan District Commission.

Commissioner Howard Whitmore, Jr. said the study will be conducted by Jason M. Cortell of Wellesley Hills, consultant biologist, who is associated with Allied Biological Control Corporation which carried on a biological survey and weed and algae control program at Upper Mystic Lake last fall.

The new program will include tests to determine the nature and cause of the odor problem, bacterial action, presence and possible sources of septic pollution and the nature and extent of contamination by chemical pollutants, such as detergents, pesticides and surface drainage.

The study will also cover aquatic weed and algae growth and various other factors creating objectionable conditions, as well as methods of abating the problems. "Although the Lower and Upper Mystic Lakes are adjacent, the problems are not necessarily the same, at least in all respects", Commissioner Whitmore stated.

In its report on the Upper Mystic Lake project, the

Planning Board Plans Hearings

Attorney David A. Leone, chairman of the Planning Board today announced that the Board will hold hearings during the month of February on nineteen Articles which have been considered for the consideration of the Town Meeting.

Of the nineteen Articles, Leone continued, the Planning Board has inserted twelve in the 1966 Warrant. These include articles 58 and 59 which will give visual protection to residential properties by preventing off-street parking in the front yards of one and two family homes, a requirement which is presently in force for apartment houses.

Article 61 will require fencing of parking lots for six or more cars or outdoor storage areas where adjacent to residential property.

Article 62 will require tall shrubbery where parking lots and outdoor storage areas abut park, playground, cemetery and parkway land.

Article 63 calls for an addition in the recently adopted sign control by-law by establishing further standards for standing signs.

Serious Business

Town Clerk Ann Mahon announced last week that there are 90 known vacancies in the Town Meeting membership to be filled at the Annual Town Election, March 5.

Of this number, 80 are the usual three-year vacancies, resulting from the annual expiration of the terms of one-third of the total number of Town Meeting members. At the present time, there are 71 announced candidates for the three-year terms, of whom 54 are candidates for re-election.

The remaining 10 vacancies are for one and two year unexpired terms of Town Meeting members who have resigned, moved, passed away, etc. There are 7 announced candidates for these vacancies.

The only requirements for Town Meeting member candidates are that they are registered voters and live in the precinct they wish to represent, as of June 1, 1965.

Now, we cannot overemphasize the important function of the Town Meeting member. Arlington has a population of 52,482 and is represented at Town Meeting by 240 Town Meeting members. This number was 243 until the reapportioning of last year.

We wonder if the average resident of Arlington is aware that these 240 Town Meeting members are responsible for considering by either approval or disapproval of requests for Town matters requiring the expenditure of millions of dollars.

To be specific, we offer the following figures: Town Meeting members, by vote, in 1960 appropriated $ 8,766,261.24; in 1961 8,805,115.80; in 1962 9,413,622.15; in 1963 10,350,661.44; in 1964 10,923,388.54; in 1965 11,328,296.71.

The original recommended budget for 1966, to be considered by Town Meeting members at the March Meeting, was $11,677,147.80; although there has already been a cut of $80,000 from the School budget (which still stands at $5,137,299). This means that Town Meeting will still be the forum for requests which could conceivably reach the 12 million dollar mark.

This is big and serious business.

We must also point out that Town finances are also affected by other factors, including reimbursements to the Town by monies from the State and by income from local levies. This means that to compute the local tax rate, the costs as appropriated are added to set costs, then reduced by receipts to the Town.

This figure is then divided by the total valuation to reach the rate of tax per year.

Statistics show that the total valuation of real and personal property in Arlington for 1965 was approximately $95,000,000. It is expected that the amount will reach $98,000,000 for 1966. Last year, every $95,000 spent represented a dollar on the tax rate. This indicates that the tax rate will go up one dollar in 1966 for every $98,000 spent by the Town.

We quote these figures for one purpose, to emphasize the importance of the individual Town Meeting member and of the members collectively.

In this year's Warrant, there is an Article which calls for the signing in and out by Town Meeting members. This brings out the point of attendance.

To some, attendance has unfortunately become somewhat of a personal matter and treated with seemingly a casual regard.

Many Town Meeting members have held the position for many years, and regard the function with the full importance it represents. This is as it should be. However, much criticism has been directed at the habit of members not staying for the adjourned sessions. The records maintained of attendance show that the first session of Town Meeting brings the best attendance. We offer the following recorded attendance figures of Town Meeting members for your perusal.

In 1960, attendance was 86.4 per cent
1961, 87.1
1962, 89.1
1963, 88.6
1964, 85.8
1965, 91.6

(High attendance at the 1965 meeting was attributed to the controversial proposal of the skating arena.)

It might be added that the number of Articles considered at Town Meetings were, 95 in 1960; 85 in 1961; 108 in 1962; 93 in 1963; 102 in 1964; and 104 in 1965. For 1966, there are 85 Articles in the Warrant.

The issue at hand, therefore, is that Town Meeting members have such an important function that full attendance at all Meetings and adjourned sessions is imperative.

When elected to represent a precinct by geographical location, a Town Meeting member still has a distinct duty to the entire Town.

The full obligation of this delegation of voting privilege at Town Meeting implicates a Town Meeting member in the financial aspects of running a Town, involving this year, an estimated $11,500,000.

There is no doubt that each Town Meeting member needs to give the matters contained as Articles in the Warrant serious thought, as they are involved in serious business.

COLLINS CORNER

Someone once wrote that a blazing fire-place, an easy chair, a good book, and a raging snowstorm outside was the ideal set-up for an enjoyable Sunday afternoon, and methinks that person had an idea of the definition of gracious living.

And, the title of the book received at Christmas is entitled "Galley Slave", and is some of the best of the writings of the late Austin Lake, who for many years wrote articles for the Boston Transcript, and in late years for the Boston American. He traveled far for the Hearst paper, and wrote hundreds of stories of Ireland, Israel, and war-torn England and Europe where he was in the middle of all the action.

He had an avocation, and that was as a football official. For years, he worked the top college games in the East. He was thick skinned when booed by the crowd, and it never seemed to bother him. But, allow some individual he did not like criticize him and he became very upset.

One of his pet dislikes was the late Bill Cunningham of the Boston Post and Herald, and the 'Duke' as he was known, never lost an opportunity to 'needle' him. In his book, Lake quotes a Cunningham article about the officiating of a Harvard-Yale game, in which Lake is taken over the coals. (in Cunningham's judgement).

Now those who knew Lake also knew he would not take such criticism sitting down, except in front of his typewriter, and that he did. It is quite a letter starting with "Dear William: It's all good clean fun William and as a scholar of the quaint phrase and snide innuendo, I am the last to deny you your merry moment." And so he goes on giving his story of the decision he rendered on that Sunday afternoon in the Harvard Stadium. But as one read on, they can see the true Lake starting to burn.

And, burn he does, for near the end of his epistle he states, "In fact William, without meaning offense, I would describe your type of journalism as 'pathological prevarication' which differs from outright falsehood, in that you like to cut the truth into paper doll shapes for the sake of improving on the dull, drab monotony of reality. You attempt to embroider fact with bogus beauty".

And that was the real Lake under full sail, and one can just see him still hot under the collar throwing one more punch saying in closing that, "Cunningham was just a big blonde personage, which was his alto ego, sitting on his rubber doughnut aloft in the press peak, and he hoped in closing he would not run out of wind, air and imagination".

So there you have two of the finest writers Boston ever had taking pot shots at each other thru the medium of their daily columns. But they both had soft hearts, and later in Italy, they stood together under a beautiful Italian moon, in the Coliseum, and let bygones be bygones, and somewhere in the files of another fine writer from Harvard is a column depicting that famous reunion, written by the late Dave Egan, who was also a master of the 'needle' and the written word. It was written in Egan's style, and one thinks that Cunningham and Lake wish they had kept their meeting very private, because it was done in such a way that made for wonderful humorous reading, as Mr. Egan did so well.

Austin Lake played baseball in Arlington, and for Arlington, and Bob Coyne has a drawing of Lake in the book, and up in the corner is a picture of a football player, Lakes pal, Bulger Lowe.

Candidates —

The Town Clerk will be open all that day.

As the deadline nears, a review of the candidates shows several contests will be lively. For the Board of Selectmen four candidates, including two incumbents are running for the two openings for a three year term. Chairman Joseph Greeley and Horace Homer are seeking re-election while Dave Leone and Angelo Liani are also on the slate.

The one opening on the Housing Authority has created the most interest among prospective candidates, with six running for the one spot, created by the resignation of James Coffey. Those who have filed for the five year term include Christopher Cammarata, Eugene Cancelliere, Paul Cantrell, James Coffey, John Hogan and Aloysius Weismann. For the three year term, incumbent Myron Chace faces contest with Eugene Cancelliere.

On the School Committee slate are two incumbents and three other candidates, with three to be elected to a three year term. Seeking election are Dr. Mary Carter, Arthur Coughlin, Dr. Paul Burke, Thomas Kenna and Claire O'Neil. Incumbent Dr. Richard Baker is not seeking re-election.

No contest is involved for the three year term of Town

MAT won some letters as the result of last week's column. The reason — some readers didn't feel the explanation of the proposed leash amendment wasn't "sharp enough". Misleading, in fact.

We can't have this, so here's the proposed amendment as it appears on the Warrant under Article 16.

Article 16. "To see if the Town will vote to amend Article 12 of the Town's bylaws, by inserting after section 9 a new section to be known as section 10 and to read as follows:

"Section 10. Leashing of Dogs. No person owning or keeping a dog in the Town of Arlington shall permit such dog to be at large in the Town of Arlington elsewhere than on the premises of the owner or keeper, except if it be on the premises of another person with the knowledge and permission of such other person. Such owner or keeper of a dog in the Town of Arlington, which is not on the premises of the owner or upon the premises of another person with the knowledge and permission of such person shall restrain such dog by a chain or leash not exceeding six feet in length.

"In any prosecution hereunder the presence of such dog at large upon premises other than the premises of the owner or keeper of such dog shall be prima facie evidence that such knowledge and permission was not had. "Any dog found to be at large in violation of this by-law shall be caught and confined by the dog officer who shall notify forthwith the licensed owner or keeper of said dog giving the owner or keeper a period of ten days within which to recover the dog, failing which the dog shall be destroyed. Return of the dog to the licensed owner or keeper shall be dependent upon admission of ownership or the keeping of the dog and the assumption of responsibility by the licensed owner or keeper. The dog officer shall enter and prosecute a complaint against the owner or keeper of any dog taken into his custody under this section provided, however, if within the twelve months next preceding this offense the owner or keeper has not been convicted for violation of this by-law of a dog owned or kept by him has not been taken into custody for the violation of this by-law, the dog officer may waive prosecution.

"A dog officer having custody of a dog confined under this by-law shall be allowed the sum of one dollar per day for each day of confinement for the care of such dog, payable by the owner or keeper thereof.

"A violation of this by-law shall be punishable by a fine of not more than ten dollars for each offense."

And there it is — in detail. Ye Editor reports that the letters about the leash amendment will be printed as soon as space allows.

It's still early, sir, for incumbent Phil Pellegrini to announce any candidacy for the Senate seat. Some are trying to make the big guess now.

The snow was deep everywhere, but why did it appear deeper on some of the slush covered Arlington street intersections?

Planning Board —

Article 64 would regulate the business hours of gasoline stations and garages between midnight and 6 a.m.

Articles 66 through 69, according to Leone, are concerned with the appearance of main streets and public open spaces, which reflect the image of Arlington to the entire metropolitan area.

Article 66 calls for the landscaping of the triangles at Arlington Center at Mystic st. and Mass. ave.

Article 67 would re-zone to residence B, certain areas in the vicinity of Mass. ave., west of Arlington Center, to recognize the residential character already in existence in these neighborhoods.

Article 68 would extend the Business A district west of Park ave., to areas now industrially zoned along Mass. ave., encourage retail development.

Article 69 continues the work the Planning Board started last year, for the re-zoning of Mass. ave., to the Business C district. This article limits the business use to offices and apartments.

Seven articles have been entered by private petitioners for changes in zoning. They include:

Article 70 — proposed change in grace period for non-conforming signs valued over $500, from five years to ten years.

Article 71 — proposed change to Residence E of sections of Gardner st.

Article 72 — proposed change to Residence E of sections of Brattle st. at Brattle drive.

Article 73 — proposed change to Residence C of sections of Summer st. near Edgell rd., on the "China Mill" property.

Article 75 — Fowles Pond Park to Business B, for proposed privately operated skating rink.

Article 76 — proposed change to Residence E of several properties in Mt. Gilboa neighborhood.

Dance Rules —

She also explained that "I.D." cards have been approved by the School Dept. and will be available also to students at non-public schools and to recent graduates. Selectman Kevin Feeley had asked if these young people would also be issued the cards and how such lists could be obtained. It was further explained that the Superintendent of Schools would be in charge of this since he does have lists.

A method of further control of conduct at local dances was discussed when the suggestion was made to have a written report of dances submitted by each sponsoring group, following the event. Mrs. Kenneth Spengler, a member of the Youth committee, stated that, in her opinion, if the intention of local officials to keep functions for young people on a well-defined plane of good conduct and the rules are publicized, the plan should meet with success.

Chairman Greeley stated that he felt they were closer than ever before to a final set of "well thought out" rules to guide the young people.

The full set of rules and regulations will be available for publication in the near future and will appear in the Advocate.

company said an analysis indicated that dominant species of aquatic weeds had been brought under control and odor-producing algae had dropped well below the minimum levels required to produce problem conditions.

The report stated that the project "has provided an invaluable first step toward the ultimate reclamation of Upper Mystic Lake."

"While several problems related to the overall fertility of the waters will require additional attention in the years ahead," the M.D.C. was informed, "control of the dominant aquatic weed infestation has been effectively initiated."

"These conditions should be maintained at a level at which recreation, public health and conservation requirements can all be satisfied," the report concluded.

Lights —

The length of the walk cycle was questioned by Selectman Horace Homer who asked Town Engineer W. S. Roby if the present timing of the new lights was of shorter duration on the walk cycle than allowed by the old set of lights.

Roby pointed out the timing schedule, citing that the new lights actually allow about four more seconds for pedestrians to cross.

The "don't walk" which blinks before the end of the so-called pedestrian cycle has caused confusion and Selectman John Billaer suggested that it be made a blinking "walk". It was stated that pedestrians become alarmed when the signs blink "don't walk" while they are still not all the way across the street.

According to the State law, the cycles as used in the Center are the same as used throughout the Commonwealth and cannot be changed by vote of the local Selectmen.

Roby explained that the "don't walk" which blinks at the end of the timing for crossing is to warn pedestrians who have not already started that there is not time enough left to cross the entire street. Anyone should not start across unless the sign is on steady "walk".

The Board voted to have signs installed at crosswalks, explaining the meaning of all phases of the timing cycle.

VA Questionnaire

Veterans and dependents of veterans on VA's compensation and pension rolls who have school-age children will receive a special questionnaire with their January checks, James M. Coyne, director of Veterans' Services announced today.

He said the check and questionnaires would arrive about February 1, 1966.

Need for the information asked by the questionnaire follows a recent law that provided higher rates of additional payments for school children and at the same time raised the maximum age limit from 21 to 23.

The questionnaire also asks for the payee's zip code number in keeping with current postal regulations in order to speed up the delivery of both checks and correspondence. A space is also provided for the payee's social security number, if readily available so that identification files may be kept up to date. The questionnaire should not be mutilated nor folded and all questions should be answered before the card is signed.

TESTIMONIAL DINNER

A Testimonial Dinner will be held at the American Legion Hall, February 2, for William F. Burns, who served for nearly 41 years on the Arlington Police Dept. prior to his retirement at the end of last year.

Tickets are available at the Police Station.

Candidate

To the Editor.

Due to a vacancy created by a member of the Housing Authority, I would like to take this opportunity through your newspaper, to announce my candidacy for the existing vacancy.

I personally feel that I am qualified for this office. My background consists of thirty-five years of business experience in Harvard Square Cambridge and Arlington. I have dealt with the general public in retail and personal services. Served on the Board of Directors of the Three Brothers Corp. and vice-president of my own company here in Arlington, Cammarata Valet Inc., which I recently sold three years ago, and went into the field of General Construction with my offices in Arlington and Lexington.

My experience in this field has enabled me to understand the ramifications and knowledge that goes into the construction and maintenance in homes, apartments and commercial buildings. During this period I have established myself with many businesses in the building field. Because of this background I feel it would be an asset to the office of which I seek.

I am forty-nine years old and a life-long resident of Arlington. I have watched this community grow from a small agricultural community to its present status, with a population well over fifty-five thousand, and the second largest town in the United States.

I am a graduate of Arlington school system. I furthered my education at Northeastern Law and Accounting School, Industrial Technical School of Boston and State Teacher's College in Fitchburg, Mass.

I am married to the former Julia Fabrizio of Boston, present owner of Julie's Dressmaking Shop in Arlington Center. I have two children, Christine who is now attending Lowell State Teacher's College and Anthony a junior in Arlington High School. I reside at 106 Spring st.

I was appointed by the Board of Selectmen in 1963 to the Board of Arlington Historical Committee for the purpose of establishing recognition of Historical Heritage which Arlington deserves. I am presently working on the "Uncle Sam" Wilson project. I was instrumental in placing the "Uncle Sam" exhibit in the Massachusetts Pavilion in the World's Fair in New York. During that period over one million people travelling through the Pavilion first learned that "Uncle Sam" was not only a Symbol but a fact that he was born in Arlington, Mass., in 1776.

Since 1952, I have been active in civic and political affairs. I have worked as Precinct captain in Red Cross, in Precinct 14, Scoutmaster of St. James Church and neighborhood commissioner with five troops under my jurisdiction. Worked on community, Salvation Army and Red Feather drives. Became general chairman of the March of Dimes in the Town of Arlington. Campaign manager for Volpe for Governor here in Arlington, in all of his campaigns.

These are the qualifications that I have to offer to the residents of Arlington. Also the firm desire to serve for a better and richer heritage which she richly deserves. I ask the full support of all the citizens of Arlington and my friends to help me achieve this goal.

With the deepest sincerity,

CRITTENTON LEAGUE

The Arlington Circle of the Florence Crittenton League held a petit luncheon and program on Jan. 19. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Andrew Magnus, after which the program was presented. A moving picture with color and sound, "The Tel-Star Story" proved very interesting.

The program concluded with a group of folk songs by Mrs. Richard Laman, who accompanied herself on the auto-harp.

DUPLICATE CONTRACT

Duplicate contract at the home of Mrs. Walter J. Finlay, Jan. 21. Results: 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Knox; 2nd, Mabel Bogrette, Gladys O'Leary; and 3rd, Madeline Walworth, Ralph E. Benson.

"Tragic news like the birth of defective babies to many of the mothers who contracted German measles during last year's epidemic, serves to dramatize the birth defect problem," said Mrs. Rogers. "Severe as it is, German measles causes only a small percentage of the hundreds of birth defects which are the targets of the March of Dimes program."

"This program," she continued, "includes a nationwide network of hospital-affiliated centers where birth defect children can receive the best care and treatment available. And while it is providing this assistance to victims of birth defects, the March of Dimes through research grants in this country and abroad is spearheading the search for the means to prevent these conditions."

"Many of us know mothers who had to ask why their babies were not born perfect," concluded Mrs. Rogers. "We can help spare future mothers that question by giving generously to the 'march-ing mother'."

Princess 144 Diamonds Show 86 Added Facets

The following excerpts from an article written by the assistant of Dr. Gubelin, Miss Varena Theissen, appeared in the October 1965 edition of the "Deutsche Goldschmiedezitung", describes the Princess diamonds with 144 facets instead of the usual 58 facets.

This new type of cutting has nothing in common with the 'Profile' or 'Princess' cut. Nor are the forms rhombic, heart- or leaf-shaped or triangular, quadrangular or rectangular or even flat, fluted grooved stones. Instead, this is a standard normal diamond with 86 additional facets, of which 48 form at the lower part, directly underneath the girdle, a wreath of facets composed of 16 rhombic or kite-shaped facets and 32 interspersed triangular facets.

Connected to this wreath are the girdle — and main facets in customary number and position, just like in the traditional diamonds. Even the angular incline to the girdle is in line with prescribed tolerances and the proportions agree with standard measurements.

"As a variation of the standard diamond, 'the Princess 144' in the above described cuts (Magma, King and Highland cuts) already has three forerunners. Nevertheless, this is a new imaginative (creative) form of diamond wherein the octagonal symmetry is retained. The additional facets on the Princess 144 result not only from a subdivision of the traditional facets, but string along at the bottom part below the girdle.

"As a result, they are the ones which merit the designation girdle facets — rather than the so named triangular facets of the lower part between the main facets. The long facets coming to a point at the culet are attractively contrasted by the small rhombic facets of the out cut with a very 'enlivening' effect, especially with the movements of the stone, whereas in still position this effect is not readily visible.

Frequently, one encounters inaccurately cut diamonds in which the upper and lower parts are mutually displaced, that is, the intersections of upper and lower part facets do not touch or lie directly beneath each other, but instead are strongly shifted laterally. The lower additional wreath of facets of the Princess 144 along the girdle avoids such ungainly distortions."

Dr. Gubelin is well-known as Europe's leading gemologist as well as owner of a number of fine stores in Switzerland bearing his name.

The Beacon Jewelry Co., Inc., located at 456 Mass. ave., is the sole distributor of these diamonds in Arlington.

New Executive Type Apartments To Open In Stoneham

A Stoneham builder has pioneered a new concept in apartment living with his nearly completed executive-type, two-apartment home at 3 Spruce st. off Alden ave. and William st. adjacent to the Unicorn Golf Course at Hillstead Acres.

Looking much like the other nearby single family homes on the street, the two-apartment home has a single center entrance, giving it the appearance of a large luxurious single family dwelling. But the resemblance stops there!

For the new home incorporates a very spacious two-car garage, family patio, a large basement storage area (approximately 300 square feet for each tenant) plus the most modern of conveniences.

Mark Hill of Triune Realty Trust builder of this new center entrance raised ranch, feels that this type of home will appeal to the many who want the conveniences of executive apartment living but who have not wished to move into the impersonal atmosphere of the high-rise steel mammoths now being built.

"Many persons," says Mr. Hill, "want smaller quarters and not have the burdens of upkeep, such as grass cutting, snow shoveling and all the other details involved in home ownership but still want residential living. To date, however, the only alternative has been to move out of a neighborhood setting and into one of the large multi-unit apartment complexes." "In the new homes one can have all the advantages of neighborhood living plus all the conveniences offered by the modern apartments."

A NEW CONCEPT in apartment living is this executive type two-apartment home at 3 Spruce St. built by Stoneham man, Mark Hill, of Triune Realty Trust.

To prove the point, Hill pointed out how the home was in a high-grade residential area in one of the finest sections of Stoneham. It is one of the few areas in Suburban Boston where telephone wires and electric lines are underground.

As far as its modern facets compare with the high-risers, Hill is using the wall-to-wall carpets, ceramic tile baths, electronically-controlled garage doors, natural light in kitchen and baths by sky domes, ultra-modern kitchen units with disposal, sink, plus a built-in combination washer-dryer and an all frost-free refrigerator. An added plus is the built-in vacuum cleaning system, whereby the housewife merely plugs her cleaning hose into convenient wall out-lets and also there is the front door intercom system to identify the visitor before allowing them to enter.

The all-electric Chrysler Air Temp heating and cooling system is as new and revolutionary as the idea which sparked this new method of apartment living.

A fan pulls in huge quantities of fresh outside air and, via the same principle used in a refrigeration unit, extracts whatever heat there is in it. This free heat from the outside is supplemented whenever necessary by an electric heating unit and forced throughout the house via insulated ducts. In the process, air is dehumidified and micro cleaned of even minute particles of dust. In summer the process is reversed and the cool air from which the heat has been extracted is fed into the living areas and the warm air is vented to the outside. Where 'heat pumps' consume only about one-half the electricity that ordinary electric heating systems consume, the estimated annual heating cost is approximately $180.00 for each apartment.

Present plans are to build three styles of homes; raised ranches, split levels and colonials. The first house will be ready for occupancy by March 1st. Those who are interested may get additional information by calling 438-1733 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Fridays an appointment will be made to show the nearly completed model home.

Leases would start at $225.00 per month for the smaller (one bathroom) side of the house, and both sides feature a compact but roomy kitchen, dining room, two bedrooms, and a built-for-entertainment living room.

A very limited number of houses will be offered for sale and prices will start at $42,000.

Unlike most apartment units, each family has its own outdoor living area, including a rear private patio. Grounds are cared for and trash collection is automatically handled by the management.

It will also be possible for future leases to choose a location in Hillstead Acres where they would desire to settle.

Hillstead Acres is within a half-mile of the interchange of Routes 128 and 28, within one mile of Route 93 and is within walking distance of Redstone Shopping Center.

Boys' Club Presents GBARC Benefit Show

"Those Barbershoppers, they certainly can sing! And they seem to love every minute of it! One of them in the back row, Stan Bates I think they said it is, he seems to be singing to each and everyone in the audience. All smiles and so happy!" This comment was overheard at the conclusion of the Winter Music Festival Variety Show sponsored by the S.P.E.B.-S.Q.S.A. (Barbershoppers) of Arlington to benefit the Arlington Chapter of the Retarded Children's Association.

The show attracted a wonderful audience, including many family groups. Every act drew enthusiastic applause and special thanks are due all those persons who donated so much of their time and talent.

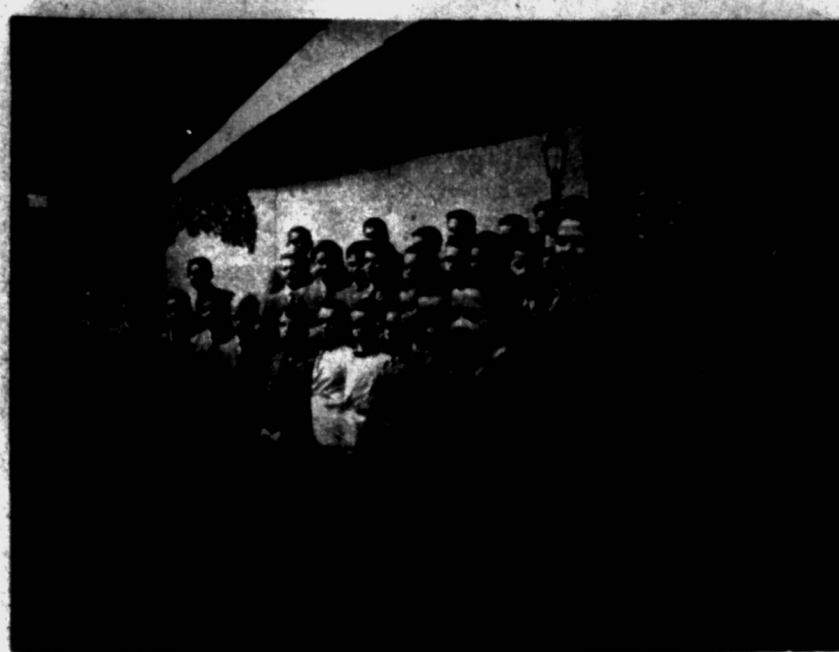

Rex Trailer, star of the WBZ-TV Ch. 4 "Boom Town" Show, a familiar face in every home, was the master of ceremonies. His talents moved the show along very smoothly, evoking merriment many times, and the ecstatic looks on the youngsters' faces in the front rows belied their excitement. Few were those who did not obtain an autograph from Rex on their program.

TUFTS ROTC

Midshipman Clayton G. Zucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Zucker, 11 Endicott rd., has been appointed Midshipman Battalion Operations Officer for the spring semester 1966 in the NROTC Unit, Tufts University, Medford.

Zucker, a senior at Tufts, is to receive a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology and a commission in the U.S. Navy in June 1966.

—Gerhard B. Winkler, 19D Dudley st., is among the seventeen Northeastern University students who have been initiated into Pi Tau Sigma, honor society of N.U.'s Department of Mechanical Engineering. Election to the society is based on scholarship and character. It is one of the highest honors conferred on a Northeastern undergraduate.

Listening to the "St. Agnes Troubadours" was an exciting experience for those who heard them for the first time Saturday night. The handsome youngsters, shining and bright, sang eagerly and enthusiastically. The well trained voices were led ever so confidently by the two little conductors in white. The precision and rhythm of those little elbows from the rear told the audience this was no group of amateurs! Father Paul J. McLaughlin should be congratulated for the wonderful painstaking work he has done with this group.

Lions Donate Symmes' Eye Room

Donald E. Nickerson, president of the board of trustees of Symmes hospital, announced at a committee luncheon held on Friday, Jan. 7, at the hospital, that the Eye room donated by the Lexington Lions club will be ready for use in March of 1966.

Attending the meeting were members of the hospital staff and the Lexington Lions club including Abraham Wise, Haskell Reed, William Revis, and Dr. Varant Hagopian.

The Eye Room will be the first in this locality to provide complete facilities for the treatment and diagnosis of eye diseases as well as for diagnostic aid in the general practice of medicine. It will include a modern slit-lamp camera microscope, a special treatment table, a portable giant ophthalmoscope, and the newest developments in ophthalmic instrumentation.

Robert R. Lovejoy, administrator of Symmes hospital, noted that the Eye Room is expected to be used primarily by the four or more ophthalmologists who practice in Arlington and Lexington.

"The Eye Room will make a welcome addition to the four surgical and two minor surgical rooms now available to the physicians on our staff. We trust that eye surgery will be done here as befits a true community hospital," Lovejoy stated.

By March 1, all the equipment will have been installed according to William G. Small, purchasing agent of Symmes. The basic equipment will cost in excess of $3,000.00 and will be paid for from the Lexington Lions club's from their July Fourth carnival funds.

Nickerson expressed appreciation to the Lexington Lions club for their help in making possible this addition to the hospital.

"It will fill a long felt need," said Nickerson, "not only for the in-patients of our 167 bed hospital, but also for the out-patient department, both of which serve the rapidly growing population of our community."

Bentley College students discuss features of scale model of new 102-acre suburban campus now under construction in Waltham. L. to r., are Joseph Deschenes of Beverly, John Fiato of Arlington, and John E. Costello of Jamaica Plain. After viewing the model, they toured the area where site preparation has already been completed. As students enrolled in the "Introduction to Data Processing" course, they also witnessed a demonstration of the basic usage of tabulating equipment in a sales analysis procedure.

44 Tech Students Tour Library

Forty-four students of the automotive, electronic, and machine shop divisions of the Arlington Technical High School recently visited the Robbins library for instruction in its organization and resources.

The students were divided into two groups, each coming four times to the library for lessons conducted by Mrs. Marcus D. O'Day, Young Adults librarian.

The students were shown how to look up books of fiction and non-fiction through the use of the card catalog and how to employ a periodical indexing service to locate magazine articles.

In addition, they were given a tour of Robbins Library departments including the Technical Services division, as well as others normally open to the public.

Commenting on the course, William V. Delaney, English instructor of the students, said, "The Library classes are extremely worthwhile as the boys really become acquainted with the Robbins library. They find out what it has to offer them and also the correct way of obtaining books for pleasure and for supplementary reading. They enjoy these sessions very much."

Students instructed included Michael Campbell, Lane Fenton, Ronald Andre, Bruce Anstey, John Burns, Stephen Capogna, Philip Capogna, Robert Curry, Ronald DuLong, John Fleming, Kevin Flynn, Robert Folk, John Forrest, David Frederickson, David Geary, Wayne Griffin, Edward Mahoney, Paul Maturse and James Seabrook.

Also, Richard Small, Peter Steeves, John Wilson, Edward Ivers, William Fitzpatrick, Wayne Kearney, Louis Rossi, Charles Spayne, Joseph Battell, Michael Cammarata, David Cooper, Paul Doyle, Gerald Gasper, Orson Hodge, Richard Melanson, Fred Quigg, Kevin Sheehan, Stanley Cibel, Robert Covino, Robert Maimone, Thomas McCarthy, Robert Cram, Dennis Pacheco, Mark Murdock and David Miller.

"BX" wiring must be in a dry location. Continual sweating in barns in winter will seriously rust "BX" with the danger of short circuits. Good non-metallic wiring is available for damp locations.

Suggestions Sought by Morgan Memorial

This is a story for men and NOT for wives or sweethearts.

The reason for the restriction is that we do not want to create any dissension in the home or start family problems.

The after Christmas deluge of ties has hit Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries in unprecedented volume. Some of the ties had price tags marked at $5 and more.

Goodwill officials estimated as of closing time yesterday, they had more than 33,000 (thirty-three thousand) ties of all shapes, sizes, garish colors, design and texture. Of course, Daddy had cleaned out the closet in some cases after receiving a new batch.

There are some with beautiful girls in bikinis, and some that a fair maiden believed would appeal to her male hero, but he apparently thought otherwise.

The story is restricted to men because we don't want wives or sweethearts to ask husbands and fiancées to produce their Christmas tie gifts... just take it for granted he loved it and kept it.

It is safe to predict there will be some tie sales at the Goodwill Thrift store at 95 Berkeley st.

At Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries, nothing is ever wasted, so many of the ties will end up in hooked rugs and even roofing materials.

If anyone could come up with a good idea about how these ties and more ties could be used, the Goodwill folks will be glad to enscribe his name in their Hall of Fame.

PLEASANT ST. CHURCH

Morning Worship will be held at Pleasant St. Congregational church on Sunday, Jan. 30, at 10:30 a.m. in the sanctuary. Youth Sunday will be observed at both services. The liturgy will be in the hands of Mark Tuller and Jean Hutton, high school students. A dialogue sermon will be given by Richard Nau and William Chase.

This will be a Family Sunday with children of all ages, except pre-school, at the services. The Junior choir will sing under the direction of Benoit Goulet. Barbara Jones will be soloist. Child care will be provided. A coffee-hour will be held in Fellowship hall, following the sanctuary service, to which all are invited. An "auction of workers" for the "Work-for-Christ" fund will be held at this fellowship hour.

Early Divine Service will be held in Edith Fox chapel at 9:30 a.m. with the young people leading the service and the dialogue sermon by Richard Nau and William Chase. Dawn Kelley will be at the organ.

Church School classes will be held Sunday for pre-school children only, with all other children attending the morning Family Services.

The Confirmation class will meet with Dr. Haskins at 6 p.m. in the youth lounge. A Fireside for the high school youth will be held at 7:30 p.m. Boy Scout Troop 308 will meet Monday at 7 p.m. in Fellowship hall.

The first monthly meeting of the Deacons and Deaconesses will be held Tuesday, Feb. 1, at 7:30 p.m. in the parlor; Red Cross community sewing group will meet Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Fellowship hall; and the annual meeting of the Council of Churches will be held Friday evening at Fellowship hall at 7:30 p.m. The delegates will meet for dessert and coffee at this hour and the meeting will begin at 7:15 p.m. at the hall.

Heights Study Club

The Arlington Heights Study club met at the home of Mrs. John E. Fuller, 337 Park ave., on Jan. 11. Mrs. Roger Goodwin, Mrs. Creelman F. McKenzie and Miss Edith N. Winn read papers on "Dominating Ladies".

The theme for the year is "Our Fair Ladies".

A resume of previous meetings includes the following: The first meeting was held Oct. 5, at the home of Mrs. Willard C. Lombard, 15 Foxmeadow lane, at a "get-together" luncheon. That day was "Art Day" and slides of formal and informal gardens were narrated by John M. Crawford.

On Oct. 26, the club met at the home of Mrs. W. Alan Morton, 50 Oldham rd. The paper entitled "Concerned Ladies" was prepared by Mrs. Waldo G. Edwards.

Miss Elizabeth Campbell of 62 Pleasant st. opened her home on Nov. 9, during the social hour. The program continued at the Junior library with a paper on "Fashionable Ladies" read by Mrs. Ariel A. Thomas, followed by pictures of First Ladies in their inaugural gowns with concise descriptions by Mrs. Thomas.

On Dec. 14, the meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Creelman F. MacKenzie, 26 Higgins st. Music Day was under the chairmanship of Mrs. Hartwell Flemming, whose paper dealt with music boxes.
